The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

ALL: Amen.

The First Lesson

Exodus 16:2-15

Reader: A reading from Exodus, chapter 16, verses 2 through 15:

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

Then the Lord said to Moses, "I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not. On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days." So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "In the evening you shall know that it was the Lord who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and in the morning you shall see the glory of the Lord, because he has heard your complaining against the Lord. For what are we, that you complain against us?" And Moses said, "When the Lord gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the Lord has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the Lord."

Then Moses said to Aaron, "Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, 'Draw near to the Lord, for he has heard your complaining.'" And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud. The Lord spoke to Moses and said, "I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, 'At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the Lord your God.'"

In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, "It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 105:1-6, 37-45

Leader: The Psalm appointed for the day is 105, selected verses. We will read responsively by half-verse.

- 1 Give thanks to God and call upon God's Name; *
make known God's deeds among the peoples.
- 2 Sing to God, sing praises to God, *
and speak of all God's marvelous works.
- 3 Glory in God's holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek God rejoice.
- 4 Search for God and God's strength; *
continually seek God's face.
- 5 Remember the marvels God has done, *
the wonders and the judgments of God's mouth,
- 6 O offspring of Abraham, God's servant, *
O children of Jacob, God's chosen.
- 37 He led out his people with silver and gold; *
in all their tribes there was not one that stumbled.
- 38 Egypt was glad of their going, *
because they were afraid of them.
- 39 God spread out a cloud for a covering * and a fire to give light in the night season.
- 40 They asked, and quails appeared, *
and God satisfied them with bread from heaven.
- 41 God opened the rock, and water flowed, *
so the river ran in the dry places.

- 42 For God remembered God's holy word *
and Abraham, God's servant.
- 43 So God led forth the people with gladness, *
God's chosen with shouts of joy.
- 44 God gave the people the lands of the nations, *
and they took the fruit of others' toil,
- 45 that they might keep God's statutes *
and observe God's laws.
Hallelujah!

The Second Lesson

Philippians 1:21-30

Reader: A reading from Paul's letter to the Philippians, chapter 1, verses 21 through 30:

To me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well-- since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 20:1-16

Clergy: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Narrator: Jesus said, "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; and he said to them,

Landowner: You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.

Narrator: So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them,

Landowner: Why are you standing here idle all day?

Narrator: They said to him,

ALL: Because no one has hired us.

Narrator: He said to them,

Landowner: You also go into the vineyard.

Narrator: When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager,

Landowner: Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.

Narrator: When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying,

ALL: These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.

Narrator: But he replied to one of them,

Landowner: Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?

Narrator: So the last will be first, and the first will be last.

Clergy: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Reverend Scot McComas, Rector

Moments for Meditation seated

The Nicene Creed standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Confession of Sin

Priest: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

ALL: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church: Send therefore your blessing upon these your servants, that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and God of might. Heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na

The congregation may stand, sit or kneel.

Celebrant: Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen.

Christ will come, will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

please bring your Time & Talent Pledge Card and place it in the baskets provided.*

The Communion

- All persons are welcome at the Lord's table to receive Christ's Body and Blood in the form of the consecrated bread and wine.
- If you are unable to come to the altar rail for communion, please tell an usher when he or she reaches your pew that you would like Communion brought to you. The appropriate response after receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen."
- The host may be received on the tongue or in your hands. Please extend your open palms, one hand over the other, to receive in your hands.
- If you prefer to have the host intincted in the wine chalice rather than drinking from the cup, please receive the host into your hands and let it remain there. The chalice bearer will dip the host into the wine for you.
- If you require a gluten-free host, simply place one hand over your chest while extending your hand to receive at the altar.
- All children are welcome to receive Communion. If you desire that your child or children do not receive communion, please ask them to cross their hands over their hearts to receive a blessing.
- If you prefer to not receive Communion, and wish to receive a blessing instead, hands crossed over your heart will indicate this to the clergy or Altar server.

Would you like prayers for your special intention?

See the "Daughters of the King," an official prayer ministry within our church, in the Lady Chapel. After receiving communion, go to the Lady Chapel (to the left facing the front of the church), where members of the Daughters are ready to offer confidential prayer for any of your needs – illness, healing, support, safe travel, or thanksgiving.

The St. Margaret Portable Prayer Wall

Next to the piano is The St. Margaret Prayer Wall. Sit for a few moments behind it and, when you're ready, write down a prayer and seal it in one of the envelopes. Your prayer will not be seen by others – it is between you and God. When an envelope has been sealed, a new empty envelope will be pasted on top of it, allowing the wall to grow over days, months, and even years.

ALL: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

When the Sacraments are to be taken to the ill or infirmed following the service, the commendation follows:

Celebrant: In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

People: We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

Blessing of Time & Talent Pledges

ALL: Gracious and loving God, giver of all that is good and true and beautiful and life-giving, these pledge cards represent our gifts, they represent our lives, they represent our dreams. The pledges of time and talent, which we make, are but tokens of the awesome gifts that have been given to us and they are pledged in thanksgiving for all we have received, for all we have been inspired to be, for all we are challenged to become, in this place. We ask your blessing on these cards, all they represent, and especially the pledge we have made to you through them and with our lives. Amen.

The Blessing

The Recessional Hymn

"Christ for the World We Sing!"

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in 3/4 time and G major. The score consists of three systems of music. The first system contains the first four lines of the hymn. The second system contains the next four lines. The third system contains the final four lines. The piano accompaniment is written in the bass clef and provides harmonic support for the vocal parts.

1. Christ for the world we sing! The world to Christ we bring stewardship

A WAY OF LIVING

As we each offer our pledge of our own Time and Talent in gratitude for God's blessings:

Let us pray for the wisdom and courage to make stewardship a way of life with God.
Because of our faith in You, O Lord...

...we acknowledge You as the source of all that we have and all that we are.

Help us to place You, our loving Creator, first in our lives...

by becoming more prayerful and more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need, and by becoming less preoccupied with material things.

Help us, Lord to find the true source of happiness and fulfillment that we all seek...

...and that You, alone, can provide.

Help us to hear Your call to be good stewards of all Your gifts...

...by sharing them for Your purposes.

Help us make Your priorities ...

...our priorities.

Help us challenge each other, as disciples of Jesus Christ...

...to put our faith into action.

Let us pray that as good stewards we will plan our sharing.

As we plan the things in our lives that are most important to us...

...Lord, help us plan our sharing of time with those in need.

Help us plan ...

...how to "give back" the talents with which we have been blessed.

Our planning and sharing...

...demonstrates the great importance You & the truth of the Gospel has in our lives.

Help us plan...

... to serve our church, our community, and our world with Your Gifts.

We do this, O Lord, as a sign of our love..

...and in thanksgiving for the many blessings we have received.

As good Christian Stewards,

...we pray we have a joyful spirit of mind and heart. AMEN
